THE HOLIDAY TRADE .- As a general rule

the most extensive and liberal buyers of holiday goods do not put off their purchases until the tocks have become low and the crowd so great tions. Indeed, as we happen to know, some of the most desirable customers in that branch of trade are already on the lookout for soucenirs of the coming season. Dealers who propose to engage in it-and which of them does not tout delay, if they wish to reap an early harvest.

We need hardly add, what they already know that the advertising columns of THE NEWS, alwars a reflex of the business of the city, are con suited now more than ever by those desiring bargains in any branch of trade.

ACADEMY OF Music.-The disagreeable weather last evening prevented the appearance of the usual proportion of ladies in the audience at the Academy; but those who were present were amply repaid for having ventured out on so raw and damp a night. "Checkmate," the open ing piece, written by Andrew Halliday, wel known as a contributor to the London Punch has a lively and well-defined plot, and abounds in keen dialogue and droll situations. Miss Blanch Chapman, in the leading part, achieved a decided triumph. Whatever her success in burlesque, her strongest point, we think, is in comedy. The pe fect naturalness and quiet lady-like manner in rhich she conducts the dialogue of the play, wa refreshing to cars accustomed to the usual exig-gerated tone and boisterous demeanor of the stage. Cinderella passed off as gally and as smoothly as when first performed, Miss Ella sustaining the part of the rollicking Dandini in spirit ed and graceful style.

For to-night we are to have "Black Eyed Sus an," with the three-act comedy of "Everybody" Priend," written by Sterling Coyne, of London. It has had the run of a year in London, with Mr. S. Clarke (brother-in-law to Edwin Hooth as Major Wellington de Boots, a swaggering mili tary bully, with the aspect of a lion and the pluck of a mouse. Felix Featherly is "Everyl Friend," constantly, in his honest desire to serve others, involving himself in trouble, like Gold smith's "Good-natured Man." The comedy is ful of very laughable incidents, and has recently seen revived in New York, with much Mr. Bishop appears as the doughty Major on this ecasion.
